General Comment

You cannot have my retirement money; I can take care of it myself. You have already raped through social security funds which were not to be touch for special products, but being without morals you've stolen from the funds repeatedly without replacing them. Stop wasting our money. We don't need to fund the entire world. They have their own governments to take care of them, we see how that works. We the taxpayers, "American citizens" are tired of you deciding how much of our money your going to take and give away,. We earn it, we deserve to keep it. KEEP YOUR HANDS OFF. Stop the give aways to foreign countries we are all tired of how you all run our government.
